Abstract

The statement of the second step written by the Supreme Leader is a detailed road map to reach the new Islamic civilization and pay the way for the emergence of the world's savior. In this regard, all sections of the society can perform the necessary duties by finding their place and role in the development of civilization in the way of playing a role and fulfilling the duties of a real watchman. On the other hand, the position of professors in the society requires them to have the role of commander and pioneer in civilization building. The present article is an attempt to explain the position of university professors in the second stage of the three stages of "self-building, socialization, and civilization-building", which is organized in a descriptive, analytical, and library-style manner and according to the speeches of His Holiness in the meeting with university professors. Based on this goal, the most important duties of the professor in the field of the enemy of the Great Jihad, revolutionism and fulfilling professional responsibilities have been examined. In this article, the Supreme Leader's demands from professors in various fields are also stated.

Key words: Enmity of great jihad, revolutionizing, professional responsibilities.
