Abstract

The commentators have mentioned many examples for "trust" in the verse "We offered the trust to... ". Considering the inclusion of this verse in Surah Al-Ahzab, the question arises that to what extent has the context of this Surah been effective in determining these examples? "The effectiveness of the context in conveying God's intention", "Using the verse of trust in various sciences such as mysticism and anthropology" etc. clearly prove the necessity of investigating this issue. Analytical-critical study of the works of commentators and scholars shows that all examples, regardless of the context of the verses of Surah Al-Ahzab, by focusing on things such as "human abilities", "the relationship between the verse "Trust" and the verses before and after it" and so on. This is while the general atmosphere and context of Surah Al-Ahzab and the verses close to the verse "Trust" can raise the "leadership of the Holy Prophet (PBUH)" as a significant point of view. Acceptance of this view has many effects such as "observing the context of the verses of Surah Al-Ahzab in determining the example", "observing the relationship between the verse of trust and the verses before and after it" and so on.

Keywords: The verse "Trust", the example of trust, the leadership of the worthy saints of God, the context of the verses of Surah Al-Ahzab, Surah Al-Ahzab in the order of revelation.
