

The Role of Christianity in Removing Damage from the Family System in the Holy Quran

Abdolreza Soleimani Babadi^{1*}, Malek Hasani²

Abstract

As the most fundamental social institution and the foundation of human societies, the family has been the origin of cultures and civilizations, and therefore the religion of Islam has paid special attention to it, and everything that causes it to weaken, is negated, and in order to keep this sacred institution safe from harm, it has issued many orders. has done Among these orders are the religious topics in the Holy Quran. Because beliefs are the root of behavior, they have been given a lot of attention from the perspective of the Holy Qur'an, and belief in resurrection is one of these beliefs that has an impact on human life and behavior. The current research aims to explain and investigate the role of resurrection belief in the elimination of harm from the family system and by using descriptive-analytical method, it investigated the verses of the Holy Quran and the words of commentators and the effect of belief in the resurrection in preventing the family from getting caught in legal, economic, and emotional damages. and explained morally.

Key Words: Holy Quran, Resurrection, Resurrection belief, family system, de-traumatizing the family.

1. fourth level student of Qom Seminary

2. fourth level scholar of Qom Seminary

* Corresponding Author: as0leimani1780@gmail.com

Received: 2023/02/25 Accepted: 2023/03/15