

Analytical Approach to the Exposure of Muslims with Non Muslims in the First Khalifa Era

Hoda Farede Moghadam^{1*}, Mohamad Nasiri², Bagher Mokhtari Dezaki³

Abstract

The exposure of Muslims with the people of the book has so far been from important political history issues. Why and how this encountered in the first caliph that made this research is important in terms In the Iranian and Rome empires, the prospect of these relations is based on the rule of the invasion of jihad and political goals, so that violence used in these actions, some positive ways, including the head of the dimension of the dimension of the Messenger of God (pbuh) In relation to the people of the book, it has been confident, and in terms of goals, the slightness of the ideological issues and religious motivations and the emphasis on political motivation has been conquered. Ahead research, based on the original nature and analysis of historical reports, examines why these exposures, and to study other dimensions of these measures that have begun to form a method for the expansion of religion and in the face of the winds.

Key words: Islamic caliphate, Book, Abu Bakr, Photova, from Religion on Maregel, Osama Corps.

1. PhD student in Islamic Education, History of Islamic Civilization, University of Tehran.

2. Assistant Professor, Department of History and Islamic Revolution, University of Tehran..

3. PhD student in Islamic Education, History of Islamic Civilization, University of Tehran.

* Corresponding Author: moghadam1404@yahoo.com

Received: 2021/13/28

Accepted: 2022/02/27